Thank you for reading this!

My mission - and my team's mission is simple: We're in the fight for life because we love. We see that every life, from the child in the womb, to natural death - and in between, including the abortion clinic worker's life, has incredible value and worth. We believe that abortion strips women of their dignity. We believe that motherhood is empowering. We believe that not giving into societal pressures to degrade oneself is empowering. We believe that justice applies to every single human being on this earth. We believe in redefining the pro-life movement.

Those wonderful young girls with bright smiles and badge-laden sashes, showing evidence of their hard work and enthusiasm, what could be the problem with that?

If you think using the innocence of young girls to fund and promote abortion and being connected to Planned Parenthood through the sale of cookies is exploitation, then plenty is wrong with it.

Consider these facts

- The Girl Scouts curriculum for girls, used by every local Girl Scout council, recommends pro-abortion role models and organizations such as Betty Friedan, Gloria Steinem, Hillary Clinton, Amnesty International, Population Council, and The National Organization For Women.
- Local Girl Scout councils and GSUSA connect girls to resources promoting abortion rights and inappropriate sexual content via official Girl Scout social media accounts.
- Girl Scouts USA (GSUSA) collects a royalty based on the GS trademark on every box of cookies. There are approximately 200 million boxes of cookies sold annually, equaling millions of dollars of funding for GSUSA every year.
- GSUSA maintains membership in abortion advocacy groups: The Coalition for Adolescent Girls and Re:Gender.
- Other organizations working alongside GSUSA include abortion providers, International Planned Parenthood Federation and Marie Stopes International, and numerous organizations that push for unrestricted abortion rights, such as the Feminist Majority Foundation and the National Women's Law Center.
